Commencement Regalia

Academic regalia, caps and gowns, are worn by all members of the University community who participate in the ceremony. Academic regalia can be purchased at the University Bookstore. The academic gown is the basic commencement garment and it is black. Those graduates receiving the master's or doctoral degree wear a hood in the color reflecting their degree emphasis. A tassel, attached to the center of each mortarboard, should be worn hanging on the right side of the face. Bachelor's degree candidates graduating with honors may purchase the gold honor cord at the Bookstore. Honors are based upon your cumulative GPA as of summer 17 semester for fall grads and fall 17 semester for spring grads.

- Do not bring personal valuables; there is no way to secure them.
- Check-in will begin one hour before the processional.

Namecoach & Reader card

The University partners with namecoach, a service that allows you to record your name in advance for the reader. When you receive emails from namecoach please take a few minutes to record your name so the the reader can make notes on how to pronounce your name. These notes are printed on the reader card that you will receive at check-in with your name, address and email address. Review the card to make sure the information is correct. Hand it to the reader, who will use it to read your name as you cross the stage.

Diploma

You will receive a scroll as you cross the stage. The scroll contains information that will tell you when and how you will receive your official diploma. The diploma is usually issued six to eight weeks after graduation. Students who want their diplomas mailed to them may fill out a form in the Office of the Registrar.

Photography

A professional photographer will be available to take pictures of you as you cross the stage. Within two weeks of the ceremony, you should receive proofs at the email address provided on your reader card. There is no obligation to purchase. All transactions are between you and the photographer.

Disability Services

We request that you indicate when you RSVP of any special needs you will have the day of graduation. For those with hearing impairments, signers are available at a designated location. Handicap parking is also available.

Webcasting

Both the fall and spring ceremonies will be broadcast live. Simply instruct your family and friends who cannot attend to log onto www.wichita.edu/commencement and click the link provided to see the live ceremony. The broadcast will begin approximately 15 minutes prior to the ceremony start time.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association will provide each graduate with a complimentary one year membership to the Alumni Association. Graduates will receive additional information from the Alumni Association.

Congratulations, Graduates!
