Wichita State University

Counseling Program Outcome Reports

Fall 2019

The Counseling Program in Department of Counseling, Educational Leadership, Educational and School Psychology has two four tracks at the master’s level: school counseling, clinical mental health counseling, higher education counseling, and sports counseling. The below information denotes the number of graduates as of the Summer 2019 semester. In total, there were 82 master’s level graduates within this time-period.

- The pass rate for graduates taking the Praxis was 100%
- The pass rate for graduates taking the CPCE was 100%
- 21 school counseling and eight clinical mental health students graduated from our program in the expected time period.
- 100% of recent graduates were working in the profession
- Based on responses from exist surveys, 88.9% were satisfied/very satisfied with counseling program
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 96.4% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in human growth and development.
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 92.9% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in social and cultural foundations
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 92.9% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in helping relationships
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 82.1% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in group counseling.
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 96.4% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in career and lifestyle development
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 96.4% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in assessment instruments and methods
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 92.9% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in research and program evaluation
- Based on responses from alumni surveys, 96.4% reported that counseling program adequately prepared them in professional orientation and ethics.
- The Counseling program has 18 clinical mental health students, 57 school counseling students, 6 higher education students, 1 sports counseling students currently enrolled. Demographics include 72 females, 10 males, 2 American Indian, 1 Asian, 7 African American, 12 Hispanic, 2 Multiple Race, and 58 White.