Sport Management Alumna Amy Stratbucker Is The New Event Operations Coordinator At The Dallas Cowboys

Amy Stratbucker

Amy recently started as an Event Operations Coordinator with the Dallas Cowboys. It's a new position to their staff, and for the short term she will be working within the stadium operations departments (including security, guest services, and event management) in AT&T Stadium, with a possible eventual move to work in stadium operations at the Cowboys soon-to-be-built practice facility in Frisco, Texas. Amy started in time to assist with security during the Final Four and will be working with several upcoming events in AT&T Stadium such as a soccer match between Mexico and Ecuador, the final concert for the George Strait The Cowboy Rides Away Tour, and multiple college football and NFL football games next fall,
