Taylor & Wagner Win the U.S. Open!

Congratulations to SMGT lecturer Nick Taylor and his doubles partner David Wagner for winning the U.S. Open Wheelchair championship in New York September 6. The victory marked their 6th U.S. Open and 10th Grand Slam doubles championship. Prior to the New York event, the Taylor/Wagner team won another doubles championship at a tournament in St. Louis. Taylor is teaching the SMGT 466-Marketing Sport and Physical Activity class once again this semester.

Congratulations to Dr. Mark Vermillion for receiving high praise from COSMA

Dr. Mark Vermillion, who served as interim department chair last year, received high praise from the Commission on Sport Management Accreditation (COSMA) for WSU's 2013-14 annual report to the accrediting body. In fact, COSMA indicated Dr. Vermillion's report will serve as a model for other institutions working on their quality assurance systems. While the College of Education continues its leadership transition, Dr. Vermillion is serving as interim co-chair of the department this fall, along with Dr. Clay Stoldt.
