DON'T FORGET TO CHECK OUT OUR ONLINE CLASSES!

Due to the COVID-19 global pandemic, we have taken steps to ensure public safety and your comfort in these classes. As such, we are delighted to once again offer several ONLINE Community Education classes in addition to our in-person classes. These classes will meet using Zoom during the scheduled dates and times. Instructions detailing how to access and use Zoom will be emailed to students prior to the first class.

COVID-19 NOTICE

During these unprecedented times, we remain committed to protecting the health and safety of our guests. For this reason, Wichita State University has taken the following actions to reduce the risk of COVID-19 at the Metropolitan Complex:

- Class capacity will be limited based on state of Kansas and Sedgwick County guidance at the time of the first class meeting.

- All students, faculty, staff and visitors to Wichita State University and the Metropolitan Complex are expected to wear face coverings at all times.

- Guests are expected to maintain 6 feet of social distancing.

- All classroom spaces, common areas and public spaces will be disinfected on a frequent basis.

- There will be hand sanitizing units at each main entrance to the facility.

COVID-19 is a complex, challenging, and fluid situation which continues to evolve rapidly. All information on these pages is subject to change as deemed necessary by University leadership in accordance with guidance and recommendations issued by federal, state, and local public health and government officials.*

HISTORY & CURRENT EVENTS

AMERICAN SILENT FILMS NEW

Recent years have seen an international resurgence of interest in the fabulous three-decade history of silent films. In this class, we will revisit that history as it played out in the United States, from the earliest experiments with moving images in the 1890s to the dazzling visual riches of the “high silent” period of the 1920s. Each week we’ll see one or more films from that golden era, featuring the great silent comedians like Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton, major movie stars such as Mary Pickford, and the directorial wizardry of John Ford and King Vidor, as well as delving into the story behind the scenes. For those already familiar with the silent era, or for those just discovering it for the first time, this will be both a fascinating slice of history and a memorable cinematic banquet.

Fly Fishing 103 is a six-week course for the beginner interested in learning the art of fly tying. This course will cover the basic tying technique needed to get started and become proficient in tying your own flies. Topics covered during this course will include both wet and dry flies for both warm and cold water fish. The instructor will provide all the fly tying vices and tools as well as the materials you will need.

Instructor: Rick Brown, Education Chairman, Flatland Fly Fishers Club
