A. We need a representative from Health Professions and Engineering. Raina Rutti and Lizzy Walker will continue for another term.

2. Meeting Schedule: This committee met as needed when items arose to be evaluated. All meetings were conducted via Zoom.

3. Committee Activities: This committee reviews proposed changes to programs and curriculum for undergraduate studies. Items considered for review are listed below by meeting date:

A. September 21, 2021

i. Old business: Raina announced that the proposal to include A+ in the grading scale has been elevated to the Faculty Senate.

ii. Discussion of New Proposals

- BA in Sports Management: Update to applied learning requirements. We discussed this proposal. Additional alternatives were added for students to complete the applied learning component. (Approved)
- Certificate in Sports Leadership and Branding: New Certificate. This certificate was created to meet the changes in the NCAA rules allowing students athletes ability to profit from their sponsorship. It is open to both degree and non-degree seeking students. (Approved)
- Certificate in Design Thinking: New Certificate. This certificate is at the undergraduate level from the college of innovation. (Approved)

B. December 3, 2021

i. Old business: Dr. Rutti announced that the proposal for A+ was struck down at the Faculty Senate Level.

ii. Proposal for Changing the Undergraduate Certificate Requirements.

- Representatives from Engineering who developed the proposal too some time to explain the justification behind the proposal. The main component is to delete the phrase "must receive a C or better in each course" from the catalog in terms of the certificates to be consistent with that for degrees. This will not affect the individual certificates, as individual departments and colleges can choose to implement a higher standard than the university level.
- With the discussion, it became apparent that there is a discrepancy between the catalog and the paperwork required to create a new certificate, and clarification is required
- The committee agreed with need for clarification which could be provided with this proposal and supported the motion to present to the executive committee of the Faculty senate
- Dr. Rutti (chair) will review the documentation to propose a new certificate and pass along recommendations.

iii. Discussion of New Proposals:

- BS in Applied Computing: Update to program requirements. We discussed this proposal. There was discussion about the concern of requiring students to take specific FYE courses as that seems to go against the philosophy behind FYE courses. It was suggested a note be sent to those managing FYE courses to inform them on this usage. The proposal for changes was Approved.
- BAS in Organizational Leadership and Learning: Update course offerings and new concentration proposal. This proposal eliminated from the catalog listing class that are not regularly taught or do not completely align with each of the concentrations. It also adds a Digital Transformation concentration which is in line with a WSU Tech program and would allow transfer students to continue in the field. Dr. Kim explained the proposed changes and justification. (Approved)
- Minor in Student Organization Leadership. This proposal is to provide an avenue that has gained much interest from students. This minor is 12 credit hours and provides academic credit, outcome assessment and acknowledgement of the learning and development that occurs through student involvement and engagement. (Approved)
- BA in Philosophy with Concentration in Ethics. There was some question on how the concentration differs from the Philosophy degree as it appears students are allowed to select whichever courses they like with no requirements aside from number of credit hours. Dr. Rutti will further investigate this and report back to the committee via e-mail for approval. Tabled - After an e-mail exchange clarifying issues, this was approved.

C. March 7, 2022

- i. Old business: First reading of Engineering Tech Dept’s Certificate Proposal is scheduled for the Faculty Senate.
- ii. Discussion of New Proposals:
 - BA in Communication – Journalism and Media Production Emphasis - Approved
 - Certificate in Dyslexia and Literacy - Approved
 - MAT – Master of Arts in Teaching (Early Childhood Unified Residency Track) - Returned to be redirected to Graduate school
 - MA in Communication - Returned to be redirected to Graduate school
 - BA in Philosophy – Concentration in Pre-Law - Approved
 - Bachelor of Arts in American Sign Language - Approved

D. March 24, 2022

- i. Old business: Engineering Tech Department withdrew the Certificate Proposal

4. Pending Issues:

- A. No pending issues

5. Recommendations: as described above.

Committee Charges

1. Develop practices and standards that are consistent with the university’s commitment to provide education that is accessible to all, and that also are consistent with academic integrity and academic freedom.
2. Develop and update guidelines for textbook and resource adoption.
3. Promote instructional practices for access and full inclusion.
4. Suggest evidence-based practices and standards for the use of Open Educational Resources (OERs) including free alternatives to traditional print textbooks.

5. Develop requests for necessary institutional support for instructional staff in the effort to make content accessible, including resources and expectations for support from the institution and resources for training faculty.
6. Participate in the work of the University Accessibility Committee organized by the Accessibility Coordinator.
7. Receive suggestions and maintain a system for receiving suggestions and complaints from faculty, students, staff, and visitors regarding the accessibility of university facilities including buildings, all their fittings and equipment, and web resources intended to support instruction and research, and the services associated therewith, and make recommendations to the administration regarding enhancing the participation of individuals with disabilities.
8. Provide feedback on Instructional Technology to relevant University offices and personnel.

Meetings

The Accessibility Committee has a wide-ranging scope of charges. Early in late in Spring 2021, the Senate added the 8th charge, “Provide feedback on Instructional Technology to relevant University offices and personnel,” which served to be a focus of the committee meetings this academic year. The committee met three times over Zoom with the university’s Interim Accessibility Coordinator and Director of the Media Resources Center on to discuss topics including the transition to Blackboard Ultra, classroom technology and two-factor-authentication issues, a new university in-house “course quality” program with the Office of Instructional Resources, and visual accessibility with electronic textbooks and computer accessibility checkers.

Suggestion to the Senate

Given that the Senate wants this committee to be the standing committee to interface with the Media Resource Center and other centers for instructional technology, the chair suggests the committee be renamed the Accessibility/Technology Committee.

COURT OF ACADEMIC APPEALS COMMITTEE

WSU Court of Academic Appeals Annual Report for Year 2021-22

Members

1. Szde Yu, College of LAS (Social Sci), Chair
2. Gina Brown, College of Health Professions, Faculty Representative
3. T.S. Ravigururajan, Engineering, Faculty Representative
4. Kerry Jones, College of LAS (Humanities), Faculty Alternate
5. Carl (Ed) Baker, Fine Arts, Faculty Alternate
6. Philip Mullins, Applied Studies, Faculty Alternate
7. Anne Wasinger, SGA Undergraduate Representative
8. Eugene Crane, SGA Graduate Representative
9. Lizzie Knoonce, SGA Undergraduate Representative Alternate
10. Michelle Bastian, SGA Graduate Representative Alternate (never responded)

Meeting Schedule and Committee Activities

The Court meets whenever an appeal case is presented to be heard. A closed hearing is conducted after a careful review of the case documentation. The decision letter and the audio recording of each hearing are archived in the Office of the Associate Provost. The year 2021-22 appeals: 8.

Pending Issues

Expecting new appeals.

Recommendations

The number of student representatives needs to increase. Some members nominated by SGA are not promptly responsive when needed. As a result, historically the Court has had to reply on other students recruited by the chair to complete hearings. The rules about committee membership should be more flexible to reflect this need.

GENERAL EDUCATION COURSE PROPOSAL REVIEW

PROCESS:

- The committee meets to review the general education attribute on new and updated courses submitted through CIM throughout the AY.
- Applications are assessed for inclusion of General Education outcomes and associated assessments.
- As needed, the committee meets with instructors of the proposed courses.
- The committee included the FYS director in meetings involving FYS courses

COURSES REVIEWED, OUTCOMES, AND ACTIONS:

- The committee reviewed 23 course proposals this AY. As of April 11, 18 courses were approved as General Education, 1 was denied. 4 of the approved courses were new FYS courses.
- The committee reviewed and discussed proposed changes to FYET 102A Introduction to Technology & Innovation and a FY Shocker Design Experience with Samantha Corcoran, Nathan Smith, and Dean Muscat.
- The committee met with Aaron Rife to discuss implementation of an FYS Remediation course for sophomores.
- The committee discussed General Education attributing of transfer courses which don't have a direct WSU equivalent. Honors College credit is General Education, but transfers frequently don't have a WSU equivalent. The committee decided that they would like to review all transfer credits without a standing equivalency and those reviews will be included in future annual reports.

REVIEW OF GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

PROCESS:

- In the fall and spring semester, the General Education Committee gathers and assesses the data that has accumulated since the last review (i.e., learning outcomes, changes) and writes a report to the Faculty Senate.
- In the spring semester, the report with any recommendations for change is presented to the senate so that the senate has the time for thorough consideration prior to taking the recommendations to the general faculty later in the semester.
- Any changes approved by the general faculty will be instituted in the next academic year.

ACTIVITIES:

- Reviewed Assessment Report from University Assessment Committee.
- Review Senate Exceptions committee report for General Education exceptions.
- Discussed and reviewed library assessment.
- Discussed and reviewed FYS Assessment Report including FYS director.
- Meeting with OneStop Advising
- Meeting with LAS Advising

COMMITTEE ACTIONS

- No Actions taken this year
- No presentations to the Senate this year.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION/DATA REVIEWED:

- FYS Data: Aaron Rife has created a new survey. Report attached.
 - One of the purposes of a First-Year Seminar course is to expose new students to the purposes and outcomes of WSU's General Education program. The survey given to students at the end of their course (Fall 2021) asks some questions to see if the course has addressed these outcomes.
 - Knowledge in the arts, humanities, and natural and social studies:
 - Each FYS is aligned with one of the above four categories, the survey asked students to rate if their course helped them "think deeply about a difficult or interesting topic" (76.49% agree); Learn about a part of life, people's experiences, or the world (83.75%)
 - Think critically and independently
 - Students rated their confidence in: Critical thinking and analysis of arguments and information (56.01% a lot, 42.96% some)
 - Write and speak effectively
 - Develop my writing skills (65.4% agree); Develop my public speaking skills (57.68%); Confidence in clear writing (54.98% a lot, 40.21% some); Confidence in persuasive speaking (41.58% a lot, 47.08% some)

- Employ analytical reasoning and problem-solving techniques
 - Creative thinking and problem solving (65.64% a lot, 32.99% some)
 - Analyze and look for solutions to problems (75.54% agree)
- Knowledge of fundamentals of information literacy and library research
 - Learn how to use library resources and to do research (78.44% agree);
 - Found it helpful to include lessons about library resources and services (69.81%)
- The FYS class is meant as an introduction to general education goals, and according to student feedback is strong in exposing students to knowledge in the four gen ed divisions, and relatively strong in analytical thinking, critical thinking, and learning about information literacy and the library. Writing skills follow, with speaking coming last. All FYS courses require writing of some kind, but not all require public speaking.
- Library Assessment
 - University Libraries' (UL) contributions to the First Year Seminar (FYS) program during the 2021-2022 AY.
 - Liaison librarians are matched with FYS courses based on subject expertise and support students in a variety of ways, including in the achievement of the FYS Gen Ed outcome: "identify appropriate library and other resources to facilitate research and accurately provide citations." The UL has been ramping up its support of FYS program in preparation for the FYS requirement for first year students, which went into effect in Fall 2021. FYS classes tend to have high levels of interaction with librarians, which helps to fulfill the FYS outcome and introduce students to library resources and services early in their academic careers.
 - Library Instruction for FYS, by the numbers:
 - In Fall 2021, 29 FYS classes were offered (some with multiple sections), which is the highest number ever offered. 9 liaison librarians were matched with the classes and taught 27 instruction sessions, which were a mix of face to face and synchronous. In Spring 2022, 8 liaison librarians were matched with 21 FYS classes and taught at least 16 instruction sessions (data is incomplete because the semester is not over yet).
 - Assessment of library-related outcome for FYS:
 - In previous years, a pre-and post-survey designed by the coordinator of library instruction was distributed to FYS students in order to measure achievement of the library-related outcome, but the response rate was too low to provide useful data. The pre- and post-survey was phased out in Fall 2019. Instead of creating a separate assessment tool, the current coordinator of library instruction collaborated with the FYS faculty coordinator to add questions that better measured achievement of the library-related outcome to the FYS survey distributed to all FYS students at the end of the semester starting in Fall 2021.

- FYS Library Tutorials
 - The UL offers 9 asynchronous tutorials for FYS designed to introduce students to a wide range of library resources and review appropriate citation practices. These tutorials were converted to a newer software platform in Fall 2020 to make them more user friendly. Tutorial usage has increased steadily since then. The library tutorials and the number of FYS classes that completed them are provided in Table 1 below.

First - Year Seminar Student Survey, Fall 2021 Aaron Rife

First-Year Seminar students had the opportunity to respond to an anonymous survey that was emailed to them at the end of November and available through December 2021. 320 students completed the survey, out of an available 934 first-year students (34% response rate). They were asked to rate their FYS course according to topics covered, how prepared they felt for university, whether they learned about resources available at WSU, and their interactions with the course instructor. Students were also afforded the opportunity to provide open-ended feedback on their course (comments are attached).

The principal questions and their results are below.

Frequency of Meetings

Fall of 2021, the committee met November 16th. Updates were conducted via email spring 2022. Discussion was centered around having a virtual or face to face, clarification of the Applied Science category, judge recruitment for spring event, and areas of improvement needed for spring event. The committee decided in January of 2022 that the event would go ahead face to face considering other university events being planned for the spring. Committee members were encouraged to recruit judges in the spring via email correspondence.

Work Undertaken by the Committee

I. Undergraduate Research Committee: 2020-2021 Charge

The charge of the Undergraduate Research (UR) Committee was to organize, administer, and review the 21st Annual Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Forum (URCAF) that took place on Friday, April 15, 2022. The UR Committee was assisted greatly in its URCAF charge by Lauren Fontarum, Conference Coordinator in Office for Workforce, Professional & Community Education. Dominic Canare, Human Factors Psychology Department was instrumental in developing and implementing the virtual platform. Highlights of this year were that the judging platform was done electronically the first time ever through Judge Zed. It worked extremely well.

II. WSU Student Participation in the 2021 URCAF

The UR Committee focused its attention during the 2021-2022 academic year on URCAF submission recruitment across the University's Colleges. There were 59 presentations which was 18 more than 2021. The College- and category-specific submissions are presented in the following table:

- First time using Judge Zed computerized scoring using Z scores face to face which was efficient and well received.
- The University Libraries Undergraduate Research Award was awarded for the second time giving three awards in conjunction with URCAF award ceremony.
- Concurrent high school students were encouraged to compete. The committee suggested to not allow cash awards to high school student and limit the number if it becomes too crowded in allowing them to complete. No high school students did compete this year. They will be encouraged in the future.

Recommendations

- Survey judges and students for input in making improvements in the competition.
- Continue to have competition face to face using Judge Zed.
- Recruit colleges who have not typically competed: College of Education
 - The Applied Sciences category allows students to showcase their projects based on literature reviews. The rubric allows a “NA” for statistical research.
- Continue to recruit concurrent high school students to compete without a cash award.

UNIVERSITY EXCEPTIONS COMMITTEE

University Exceptions Committee Report to the Faculty Senate University Exceptions Committee (UEC) 2021-2022 Annual Report

Members

Brigitte Roussel (Chair, LAS Humanities); Susan Bray (Applied Studies); Perlekar Tamtam (Engineering); Gina Riggs (Health Professions); Patty Bradley (Business); Angela Paul (University Libraries); Peer Moore-Jansen (LAS Social Sciences); William Ingle (LAS Social Sciences); Ed Baker (Fine Arts); Lizzie Koonce (student representative).

Frequency of Meetings

The committee met 12 times this AY, including during the summer months. Meetings were held on the following dates: August 12; September 16; October 14; November 18; December 9; January 13; February 17; March 24; April 14; May 12; June 16; July 21.

Work Undertaken by the Committee

In the last academic year, the committee continued to review student petitions, with meeting agendas comprised of petitions ruled on by the college-level exceptions advisory committees, including rulings on readmissions, late drops, late/medical withdrawal requests, academic forgiveness, grade change, and other exceptions to established rules.

The primary issues this past academic year have been:

1. The issue of Academic forgiveness.

An Academic Forgiveness petition was presented at a UEC meeting and approved but was then put on hold in the RO as they reviewed the policy. During the meeting, the RO noted that Academic Forgiveness and Transition Semesters are already “exceptions” policies and students need to fulfil all the requirements as listed. Gina Crabtree was in agreement and provided information to the Chair of the UEC. The issue at hand is that it was left with a plan to review the policy in RO during this academic year and a notation will be added to the catalog, but no additional petitions for exceptions to the current criteria of Academic Forgiveness was to be entertained by the UEC. The LAS Advising Office stated that when petitioners meet 2 out of 3 requirements for Academic Forgiveness, they have been approving these petitions. The issue is still pending and will be revisited with the RO and the UEC during the next AY. If a disagreement subsists between colleges and the RO, the UEC will likely send this item for consideration to the Faculty Senate in AY 2022-2023.

2. Student-athletes transferring to WSU.

A blanket exceptions request that would apply to all student-athletes transferring to Wichita State University who had completed eight full-time semesters at previous institution(s) was presented to the University Exceptions Committee. The exception request would have required student-athletes to only complete 24 credit hours from Wichita State University instead of the normal 30 credit hours as outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog.

The request stipulated that students with 96 credit hours transferable to their degree program be pre-approved for a waiver of six WSU residency hours. Instead of a student potentially earning six hours of credit at another institution in his/her last semester, the student would be bringing an additional six hours of degree credit with him/her from his/her previous institution. By allowing this, the student would meet NCAA eligibility requirements and would be immediately eligible to compete.

Requests for this exception were not prompted by any failure on the part of the student to follow the graduation requirements or their performance academically. The situation occurred because of late recruitment to Wichita State and how our institutional policy impacts meeting NCAA progress-toward-degree requirements.

The UEC met and agreed to not grant a blanket exception but to examine each case separately to be able to understand the details of each situation. For each petition, the UEC would ask why the student could not fulfill the 30 hours required. The UEC needs a good reason for making an exception to a rule ALL students who want to graduate with a WSU degree need to abide by. The committee further felt the academic experience at WSU is an enriching one, and that the WSU educational program is well defined, so how could students be hurt by taking the extra 6 hours required? No matter what the degree is or what division the student is in, the UEC consistently needs a valid reason to approve an exception. Another consideration was what kind of courses would those 6 hours consist of? If they can be anything and if they don't match equivalent courses offered within the rules for graduation at WSU, then the student-athlete does not get a WSU based academic performance. This consideration is a consistent philosophy behind UEC decisions. That is why we need to examine each petition case by case.

3. Serving on two or more Exceptions Committees.

Once in a while a faculty member serves on two levels of the same committee. While service is very much appreciated, this question was brought to the attention of the UEC Chair. The Faculty Senate Rules committee was contacted to clarify rules regarding the Exceptions Committee, and the answer was that FS rules generally don't specify exclusion in the committee composition specs, but that it has been a long-term practice that the Rules committee avoids the undue influence of any one person by having entirely "fresh eyes" at the university level. So, in order to avoid any appearance of bias or impropriety, the Rules Committee would not appoint someone at the university level if they knew the faculty member was slated to also serve at the college level on a given committee.

4. One Stop advising errors.

Throughout this AY, more petitions were presented to the UEC when advising error occurred at the One Stop level. The colleges continue to complain about the overall lack of communication between One Stop advisors and seasoned departmental/college advisors in every college. College admins who present cases to the UEC are the first ones to let us know that their departments were never consulted to provide advising assistance, and in numerous cases, the One Stop advisors never even met with the students who had to later petition for exceptions due to misadvising. The UEC continues to regret that incoming students' advising is conducted without appropriate conversations needed to assist often uninformed high school graduates.
