If you grew up speaking Spanish at home, consult a Spanish professor or the MCLL advisor before enrollment in any Spanish class to determine your classification as a heritate or native speaker. This checklist is for native speakers only.

Native speakers are not normally permitted to receive credit through enrollment or testing for 100- and 200-level courses or for intermediate conversation 325. Heritage speakers (i.e. native speakers who have not attended high school in a Spanish-speaking country) should consult the regular MCLL degree checklist.
