

GRADUATE CERTIFICATES

City and County Management

Who should enroll?

- City and county managers who hold undergraduate degrees and wish to enhance their knowledge and skills.
- MPA students seeking a concentration in city and county management.
- Students in other graduate degree programs seeking to specialize in city and county management

Complete each of the following required courses:

Public Administration 725: Public Management of Human Resources

Public Administration 865: State and Local Government Finance (prereq PAdm 765)

Public Administration 825: State and Local Government Administration

Complete one of the following elective courses:

Public Administration 760: State and Local Economic Development

Public Administration 771: Planning Process

Public Administration 775: Local Government Law

Public Administration 785: Public Works Administration

Economic Development

Who should enroll?

- Economic development practitioners who hold undergraduate degrees and want to enhance their skills and career options. MPA students seeking a concentration in economic development.
- Students in other graduate degree programs, such as Master of Business Administration.

Complete each of the following required courses:

Public Administration 771: Planning Process

Real Estate 619: Urban Land Development

Public Administration 760: State and Local Economic Development

Complete one of the following:

Public Administration 688/ECON 688: Urban Economics

Public Administration 865: State and Local Government Finance (prereq PAdm 765)

Public Administration 866: Public Financial Management (prereq PAdm 865)

Real Estate 618: Real Estate Investment Analysis

Nonprofit Management

Who should enroll?

- Practitioners in nonprofit management who hold undergraduate degrees and wish to enhance their knowledge and skills.
- MPA students wishing to specialize in nonprofit management and develop more marketable skills for employment in the field.
- Students in other graduate degree programs seeking to specialize in nonprofit management

Complete each of the following required courses:

Public Administration 725: Public Management of Human Resources

Public Administration 865: State and Local Government Finance (prereq PAdm 765 and PAdm 865)

Public Administration 870: Fundraising and Financial Management in Nonprofit Organizations

Complete one of the following elective courses:

History 701: Introduction to Local and Community History

Public Administration 845: Public Policy Analysis and Program Evaluation

Public Administration 871: Community Networks

Public Administration 873: Strategic Planning in Public and Nonprofit Organizations

Public Finance

Who should enroll?

- Public finance professionals who hold undergraduate degrees and who want to improve their skills and knowledge
- MPA students seeking to specialize in public finance
- Students in other graduate degree programs seeking advanced study in public finance

Complete each of the following required courses and their prerequisites:

Public Administration 765: Public Sector Economics

Public Administration 865: State and Local Government Finance (prereq PAdm 765)

Public Administration 866: Public Financial Management (prereq PAdm 865)

Public Administration 867: State and Local Government Budgeting (prereq PAdm 865)

| CONTACT INFORMATION |

Dr. Samuel Yeager, Graduate Coordinator, Public Administration

samuel.yeager@wichita.edu

Wichita State University

1845 Fairmount

Wichita, KS 67260-0155

Tele: (316) 978-3401 Fax: (316) 978-6533

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY

Hugo Wall School of Public Affairs