

Heartspring Communication Intern

The Heartspring Marketing Team is seeking a Communication or Marketing major to join our organization! Heartspring provides therapies and special education for pediatric neurodevelopment.

In this position, you'll have the opportunity to help our team develop projects and initiatives to help more families find Heartspring services and promote communication across the organization. We're looking for a strategic thinker to assist with larger campaigns and projects and day-to-day tasks using a variety of marketing tactics. We're committed to turning possibilities into realities for every child who walks through our door. Help us make a difference and grow your career at Heartspring!

Responsibilities:

- Utilize writing skills for projects and marketing tactics
- Adapt social media posts to speak to internal audiences
- Apply graphic design and photography skills for social media and internal comms
- Assist the team with other duties as assigned

What You Can Expect:

- $14 per hour
- 15 hours per week with the opportunity to expand based on performance and mutual benefit
- Flexible work schedule around your classes
- Valuable work to add to your portfolio
- Professional guidance and mentorship

Requirements:

- Ability to work within the hours of 8-5 Monday-Friday with the opportunity for hours outside of normal office hours
- Ability to pass a background check and drug screening

If interested, please send your resume and online portfolio link to Clara Miller, Heartspring Marketing & Communications Director, at cmiller@heartspring.org.

Applications will close on 12/31/2024, and the candidate would ideally start in January.
