INSTRUCTIONS >>>

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (HEOA) extends the authority for a financial aid administrator to award a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan to a dependent student, without parental information provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), if the parents have ended all financial support and/or refuse to complete the FAFSA. The Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships (OFA) will make this determination based on the documentation submitted. Requests will be approved only in certain circumstances. Any decision of the OFA is final and may not be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education.
