UNIVERSITY

FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

myWSU ID _____

Federal student aid regulations for Pell Grant, TEACH Grant, and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG) require recipients to begin academic engagement by participating in academically related activity in all courses for which Wichita State University has disbursed federal grant funds.

The Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships has been unable to verify that you began academic engagement in one or more of your scheduled courses OR has received communication from your professor(s) that you did not academically engage in coursework. As a result, Wichita State University has withdrawn necessary federal grant aid funds.

Active participation by a student in an instructional activity related to the student's course of study that includes but is not limited to:

- ➔ Attending a synchronous class, lecture, recitation, or field/laboratory activity, physically or online where there is an opportunity for interaction between the instructor and students
- ➔ Submitted an academic assignment
- ➔ Taking an assessment or exam
- ➔ Participating in an interactive tutorial, webinar, or other interactive computer-assisted instruction
- ➔ participating in a study group, project, or an online discussion that is assigned by the institution
- ➔ interacting with an instructor about academic matters

- Living in institutional housing
- Participating in the institution's meal plan
- Logging into an online class or tutorial without any further participation
- Participating in academic counseling or advisement

If you believe you did meet one or more of the above requirements of academic engagement, you must have your professor complete the information below. This form must be completed for each course in which you are requesting federal grant aid reinstatement.
