

Academy for Effective Teaching Award Student Voting Instructions

Wichita State University values good teaching. Each year, the Academy for Effective Teaching solicits nominations from students of WSU faculty members who deserve to be recognized for excellent teaching. The AET Award is the only student-driven teaching award at WSU. In addition to the honor of being selected, winners receive a permanent addition to their salaries. Please take a moment now to make your nomination. Professors will see any comments you make, whether they are winners or not, and your feedback is much appreciated.”

Frequently Asked Questions

Who can vote?

Any current undergraduate student with 30 hours or more of credit at Wichita State University.

Any current graduate student with 15 hours or more of graduate credit at Wichita State University or 30 hours or more of (graduate + undergraduate) credit at Wichita State University.

Who administers this award?

The Academy for Effective Teaching. This organization is composed of retired WSU faculty chosen for their record of teaching by the current WSU faculty.

Who is eligible to be nominated?

Eligible nominees are faculty who have been at WSU for at least four years and have not already won the award.

Full time administrators are not eligible.

What does the winner receive?

The faculty member(s) who receive this award have $2,000 added to their base salary.

Where does the Academy for Effective Teaching get the nominees?

Only from the students. This is the only student driven faculty award that adds money to the base salary of a faculty member at WSU.

Is the nomination process anonymous?

Yes. The Academy receives only the total nominations and remarks. No names are ever released.

Additionally, 2 students are randomly selected to receive $500 scholarships.