TRIO Celebrates First Generation College Students

The concept of “first-generation” students was introduced into federal policy by the TRIO community in 1980, during passage of the Higher Education Amendments to the Higher Education Act of 1965. Last November, the Council for Opportunity in Education’s Board asked college access and success professionals to join with TRIO across the country for the Annual First-Generation College Celebration on November 8th the Anniversary of the Higher Education Act.

Myths About Financial Aid

Q. The FAFSA is so complicated, is it really worth the trouble?
