

PRIVACY POLICY NOTICE

Advance Insurance Company of Kansas has the following practices regarding nonpublic personal financial information with respect to our customers.

To administer and service your coverage, we collect nonpublic personal financial information from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms.
- Information about your transactions with us and our affiliates.
- Information we receive from others, if you hold duplicate coverage subject to coordination with coverages we issue or administer.

We do not disclose such information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. We restrict access to your personal information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products and services to you. We may disclose information to unaffiliated third parties only as permitted by law and only as needed for us to provide agreed services to you. Such companies have agreed not to redisclose such information to others.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards on your nonpublic personal financial information.
