IV. Introduction of Senators. Two individuals were appointed to fill existing vacancies. They are:
   a. Andrew Kahrs – Housing and Residence Life
   b. Grady Landrum – Disability Services

V. Guests
   a. Policies and Procedures- Judy Espinoza, Jane Link
      i. Discussion of how policies are reviewed/developed was held. Judy Espinoza indicated that all HR policies are under review. The policy review work flow goes is as follows:
         1. HR Leadership team
         2. HR Business partners
         3. EEO Office
         4. USS/UP/Faculty Senates
         5. General Counsel
         6. President’s Executive Team
         7. Once approved, policies move to Internal Audit for inclusion in policies manual.
      ii. In each senate, the president can decide whether to bring the policy to their full senate for review.
      iii. If General Counsel makes major revisions, the senators may or may not be advised.
      iv. Comments from Jane Link: WSU has needed a good process to organize policy revisions. Many revisions/ideas were getting lost in the process so there is a lot of clean up going on. Examples: Rescinding and combining policies and reorganizing policies into fewer chapters. If you notice policies that do not reflect how we function today please forward to Jane. WSU intends to move to a new web platform for policies within the next year.
      v. Discussion was held about non-HR policies and whether they should be reviewed by Senators and at what point in the revision process. Jane Link indicated that she will work with the General Counsel’s office to determine how best to facilitate communication on policy changes that are not HR related.

VI. New Old Business
   a. Communication Plan –
      i. Discussion was held about the stated value of increased/improved communication between the UP Senate unclassified professional staff. Amy Barfield indicated that she had just received an updated list of all UP’s and raised the question about how the list should be used to facilitate communication. A variety of potential uses was discussed. For now, Julie Scott offered to divided the list by voting divisions to enable Senators to make direct contact with a set of UP’s within their nominated areas. The intent is to let UP’s know the name of a Senator to contact with questions/concerns/information and to facilitate better communication with our constituency.

ii. President will create a form letter to be given to all new employees with brief information about UP Senate and include the list of Senators with their respective areas.

VII. President’s Council Meeting Report – No Report

VIII. HR/Senate Meeting Report – No Report

IX. Strategic Planning Committee Report – Applied learning curriculum plans are being implemented by all colleges. Not sure yet what the next area of focus will be.
