

Module 3

1. There are many sources of funds to pay for the costs of college. Which of the following sources would you have to pay back?

Answer _____

- a. A TEACH grant if the service obligation is not completed.
- b. Money you saved for college.
- c. Money you earn while in college.
- d. A scholarship from a local church or civic organization.

2. It's a good idea to pay a company to search for grants and scholarships for you if they promise you will get into your #1 school.

Answer _____

- a. True
- b. False

3. What is the "rule of thumb" for the amount of time you should spend studying outside of class for your college courses?

Answer _____

- a. Most college classes do not require you to study outside the classroom.
- b. You should plan to study three hours for every hour you spend in class.
- c. You should not try to plan your study time; just try to study when you are in the mood.
- d. None of the above.

4. A financial aid award letter from a school is valid for any school of the same type.

Answer _____

- a. True
- b. False

Name: _____

WSUId: _____