- Maintain a positive outward attitude when performing HRL duties & responsibilities
- Carry out all responsibilities in a manner that will represent the department in a positive manner
- Understand and receive constructive feedback as a method for self-improvement, and provide appropriate constructive feedback to others as applicable

Academic Requirements

1. DAs are expected to continue positive academic progress by:
   a. having a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or greater at the time they apply for the DA position and at the end of the spring or fall semester prior to beginning the DA position.
   b. receiving a semester GPA of 2.5 or greater as well as maintaining a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or greater. DAs who do not achieve these standards will be placed on HRL Academic Probation for the following semester. DAs below the 2.0 GPA should consult with the supervisor to determine if continued standing as a DA is in their best interest.
   c. HRL Academic Probation may only be used once during any 24-month period of time. If a DA returns from academic probation and fails to meet requirements again within twelve months, they will not be permitted to continue in any HRL position.
2. DAs must be enrolled as a full-time student (12 credits or more undergraduate and 9 hours graduate) and making academic progress toward graduation. At least 3 credits per semester must be taken in person and on campus. DAs who fall below 12 credits in any given semester may be asked to terminate their status as a DA.
3. If a DA is removed from his or her position because of the GPA requirement, they may re-apply to be a DA and go through the DA selection process once their GPA meets the stated requirements.
